Send Ten Cents for Trial Outfit

There must be readers suffering from chronic catarrh who would like to know how they can stop catching cold after cold, for they must realize that sooner or later this may lead to serious deafness and injury to the system in general. Dr. Blosser, a respected physician, and for forty-three years an enormously successful specialist in catarrh, is the discoverer of a pleasant, direct method that can be used by man, woman or child.

His remedy is made from medicinal herbs, flowers and berries, which you smoke in a dainty pipe or cigarette, and inhale the vapor into all the air passages. It contains no tobacco, even though it is used in the same manner. Dr. Blosser's Catarrh Remedy is equally effective in all forms of catarrh, bronchial irritation, asthma, catarrhal headache and ear troubles that may lead to deafness. You will breathe better and feel better after using it.

For ten cents (in coin or stamps) small packages will be mailed, containing some of the Remedy made into cigarettes, also some Remedy for smoking in a pipe and a neat little pipe. Month's supply, either form, costs one dollar. Address: The Blosser Company, Box 2901, Atlanta, Ga.

NOTE—Should your druggist not carry Dr. Blosser's Catarrh Remedy in stock, he can secure it for you. Druggists do not supply the Trial Outfit.—(Adv.)

FINAL CURTAIN IN BUSH OUSTER

Lawyers Promise to Finish Evidence Saturday and Arguments Will Begin Monday

The final curtain in the Bush ouster case will be rung down Tuesday afternoon, at which time argument in the famous case, it is said, will close. The defense rested Thursday afternoon and the state claims it will take only about three hours to put on its rebuttal evidence, and then, it is expected, court will adjourn until Monday, at which time, it is said, argument will be begun.

The opening speech in all probability will be made by Atty.-Gen. Frank M. Thompson, who will be followed by W. T. Murray for the defense and then Will F. Chambliss for the defense. W. E. Miller will close for the state and T. Pope Shepherd for the defense. The argument will last for two days. At the conclusion of the evidence of the defense Thursday Commissioner Kuffaker was allowed to testify for the state, as he will be out of town on Saturday. His testimony will be read to the chancellor on Saturday. All his testimony was objected to by the defense as hearsay evidence. After the noon hour Deputy Sheriff Frank Day was called to the stand, and he testified he was unusually active during the street car strike, but did not arrest any one except the "dipper" men in North Chattanooga. Deputy Sheriff Charley Weigle was again called, and he testified as to running down calls and tracing up information during the street car strike. He stated, in explaining to the state's counsel what a riot alarm meant, that it rang the bell on the Armory and called out all police and deputy sheriffs. H. R. Simpson was recalled to the stand and stated that he assisted on the night of the first riot and helped arrest five men. Deputy Bert Newport testified regarding all his activities in North Chattanooga during the rocking of cars in that vicinity. Court then adjourned until 9 o'clock Saturday morning.
